

Self-Awareness interview guide

1. What are your strengths as a RYCW?
What experiences have helped you developing your skills as a professional?
What skills would you need to develop further in order to become a better RYCW?

2. Discuss a case where understanding cultural or ethnic differences facilitated working with a YP.
What can you do to better understand the YP perspective or worldview?
How can you better understand the reasoning behind a YP triggering a crisis situation?

3. You do not have to answer the following questions, please only do so if you feel comfortable doing so.
 1. What situations cause the most difficulties at work? Why do you find them difficult to handle?
 2. What kind of behaviour of young people causes tension and uncertainty for you? Can you associate these with any previous experiences, values, beliefs or lack of experience? If you would like to talk about it, feel free to do so.
 3. What does your work offer and what do you expect from your work, how can it motivate you in your future activities as an RYCW?
 4. Are your professional or individual needs satisfied by working with young people?

Source:

Interview guide adapted based on Nunno, M (ed.), (2006): Therapeutic Crisis Intervention - Student Workbook, Sixth Edition, Residential Child Care Project, Cornell University, retrieved 13/07/2016 from <http://bookwhen.s3.amazonaws.com/assets/documents/1137/original.?1312977374>